Total	2,69,972	12	3
-------	----------	----	---

The cost of the works on account of which these overdrawals have occurred is for the most part, as sanctioned by Government, to be met either from loans which have not yet been raised, or from the sale-proceeds of surplus land which it has not been considered advisable for the present to sell. In this latter case a loan of Rs. 1,60,000 has, with the sanction of Government, been taken from Part IV to enable the work to be carried on. This loan will be repaid when the land is sold. The overdrawal on account of stock calls for no remark, and the few remaining items have been reported to Government, and sanction has been asked to meet these excesses from the savings on completed works.

5. During the year additions have been made to your Block account to the extent of Rs. 37,85,026-5-9. On the other hand your Block account has been reduced by Rs. 32,725-0-5, the difference in the value of six worn out steam-cranes which have been converted into hand-cranes, and Rs. 8,000 the value of the River Police 'Hulk Star' which had become worn out and been sold. On the 31st March last the value of your block as shown in your accounts was Rs. 1,13,54,086-1-1. Besides this amount, Rs. 6,97,407-8-2 had been expended on works which, at the close of 1880-81, were still under construction.

6. The amount by which the loan from Government has been reduced during the year is Rs. 86,784-13, and the balance to be repaid was on the 31st March 1881 Rs. 52,53,563-14, besides the fixed loan of Rs. 17,65,000 which is not repayable.

7. The amount shown in your capital account as contributed from Revenue for new works and renewals up to the 31st March 1881 is Rs. 39,96,290-4-7. This sum is exclusive of Rs. 40,313 contributed from the revenue of Part IV towards the cost of the tug steamer, the value of which is shown in the Hooghly Bridge block, but is inclusive of the sum of Rs. 6,320-9-6 contributed from the revenue of the bridge. The balance on the 31st March 1881 in your capital account is Rs. 39,33,212-13-8, leaving a difference of Rs. 63,077-6-11 which is accounted for as follows:—

	Rs.	A.	P.
